

Although I cannot hold you in my arms, you will be forever held deep within my heart.

Although I cannot see you with my eyes, I will picture you always in my mind, of what was, and what could have been.

Know that you are loved, and that you made a special place within my life and I will cherish you always.
